London, November 29.—The actual procedure to be followed in demanding the surrender of the former German emperor to the allies will be discussed in London according to the Daily Express. Premier Clemenceau of France will arrive here Sunday with Marshal Foch.

The British and French governments, the newspaper adds, have reached a decision regarding their right to make the demand on Holland.

CONTRACTS A PUZZLER

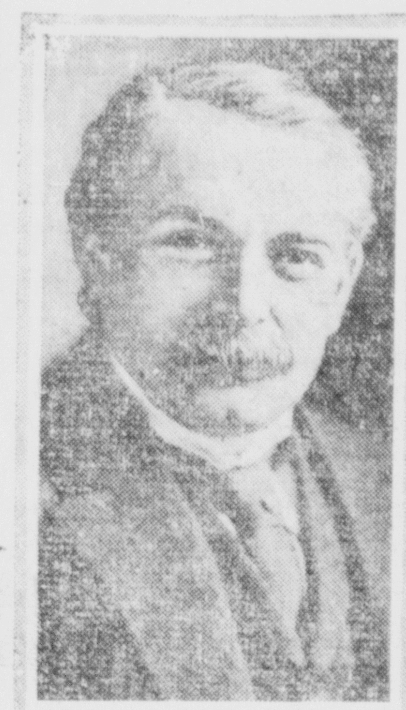

Contracts Involving Hundreds of Millions May Be Cancelled by Government

(By Associated Press)
Washington, November 29.—Government war contracts involving hundreds of millions of dollars was rendered doubtful in status today by a decision of comptroller Warwick of treasury, that orders have not been legally executed unless actually signed by responsible government contracting agents and the contractor. The war department submitted to the comptroller a form of cancellation agreement under which it was proposed to abandon without unjust loss to contractors thousands of war supplies contracts. He refused to approve the agreement holding that the department may not agree with a contractor on an arbitrary sum to cover liabilities unless specific authorization is given in a previously existing contract.

MAY REQUIRE LEGISLATION

(By Associated Press)
A large proportion of war orders were given informally by telephone, telegraph or letter, it is said. In such cases the comptroller held, new legislation will be necessary to permit

BREWERIES WILL CLOSE SATURDAY

(By Associated Press)
Columbus, O., November 29.—Tomorrow night will mark the close of the brewing industry in the United States until after the war.

In Ohio it may mark the close of the industry for all time, as the state wide prohibition amendment which becomes effective May 26, 1919, may be operative before the federal ban prohibiting the manufacture of malt liquors, is lifted as a food conservation measure. The supply of beer which Columbus breweries have on hand will be sufficient to supply their trade until May 26th, they assert. Several thousand men will look for new jobs December 1st.

1000 MEN DAILY

(By Associated Press)
Chillicothe, O., November 29.—Plans to expedite the demobilization of the troops at Camp Sherman have been completed, and as a result it is expected 1,000 men will be released daily instead of 500 as originally planned.

London Learns Through Neutral Sources That Former Emperor's Agents Are Busy at Work Preparing the Stage For His Recall

FORMER OFFICERS MANAGING REVOLUTION

Harranguing Crowds of Workmen and Returning Soldiers, Former High Command Officers, Are Recognized in Disguise

LONDON, November 29.—(Associated Press Cable)—The former German emperor contemplates an early return to Germany to reclaim his throne, according to news received in London through a neutral source, says the Daily Mail.

The paper adds that the revolution in Germany is being managed by officers of the German high command with a view of eventually causing its collapse and the triumphant return of the former emperor to Berlin. Some of these officers in civilian clothes have been recognized in Berlin. Many of them are reported to be dressed as workmen.

These officers harangue the soldiers as comrades and in every way encourage the revolutionary movement.

It is added, however, that if opportunity offers they will abandon their disguise, contend that the revolution is a failure and begin a counter revolution.

Agents of these officers, it is declared, are furthering this plot with spreading of anti-British propaganda in Holland with the objective of inciting the Dutch against the allies.

ALLIES TO GO TO BERLIN

AMSTERDAM, November 29.—(Associated Press Cable)—Representatives of Great Britain, France and the United States will arrive in Berlin shortly to discuss the question of the armistice, the Berlin correspondent of the Cologne Gazette says he understands.

AUSTRIANS SEIZE HUN COURIERS

(By Associated Press)
Copenhagen, November 29.—Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian premier, has caused the arrest of a German courier on his way to Austria, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Berlinische Tidende. The courier's documents were seized.

A message from Munich received in London Thursday said that Bavaria had broken relations with the Berlin government. The message, sent by Premier Eisner, declared the action was taken owing to the efforts of Berlin "to deceive the people by withholding the truth about conditions."

CHARGES DROPPED

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE

The charges of disloyalty against Senator Robert La Follette have been taken up by the Committee on Privileges and Elections of the Senate and will be either laid on the table or dismissed, according to a report from Washington. This action will bring to a close an incident that at one time threatened the political future of Senator La Follette. The widely circulated report that he had delivered an address urging disloyalty before an audience at St. Paul, Minn., was later corrected by a news distribution agency which published an apology and stated that the report was without a foundation of fact.

LOWER RATE OF POSTAGE IS PROSPECT

Repeal of Increased Rates is Approved by Senate

Zone Rate Law is Materially Amended

(By Associated Press)
Washington, November 29.—Repeal of the increased postage rates was approved today by the Senate Finance Committee.

Amendments to the war revenue bill were adopted to abolish the zone increases on second class rates with a proviso that the rate shall be one and one-half cents per pound beyond a 200 mile radius and also for repeal of the extra cent per ounce postage on letters.

The change in second class postage under the committee's amendment would become effective upon enactment of the bill while that reducing first class postage rates would be effective July 1, 1919.

The committee also ordered into the bill the so-called child labor amendment. It was offered by Senator Lodge and provides for a ten per cent tax on products of child labor.

ANOTHER DROP

Another amendment by Senator Lodge adopted by the committee provides that all bequests to charitable purposes shall be tax-free.

SUGAR USE RESTRICTION TO BE OFF SOON NOW

The Sugar Division of the Food Administration Will Begin to Demobilize on December 15

Manufacturers may, However, Be Compelled to Limit Purchases

(By Associated Press)

New York, November 29.—The sugar division of the United States Food Administration throughout the country will begin to demobilize about December 15th, it was learned here today in anticipation of the arrival of Cuba's sugar crop in January.

Modification of restrictions affecting consumers will become effective early next week.

The sugar division which has complete control over distribution by refiners and through the refiners over distribution by wholesalers and grocers, will on December 1st, discontinue their certificate system under which sugar has been allotted to manufacturers and dealers as a war-time measure to conserve this commodity.

Manufacturers will, however, be required to limit their purchases each to a 30-day supply until the free arrival of the Cuban raw sugar about January 10th or 15th.

While restrictions on the use of sugar in public places will continue in effect for the present, four pounds will be allowed to each person each month in the homes, beginning Monday or Tuesday. This, it was declared, was the normal consumption prior to the war. The present allotment is three pounds.

The sugar division had not intended to relinquish control until the end of the year, but the decision was reached today that the situation had so improved that the demobilization would begin two weeks earlier.

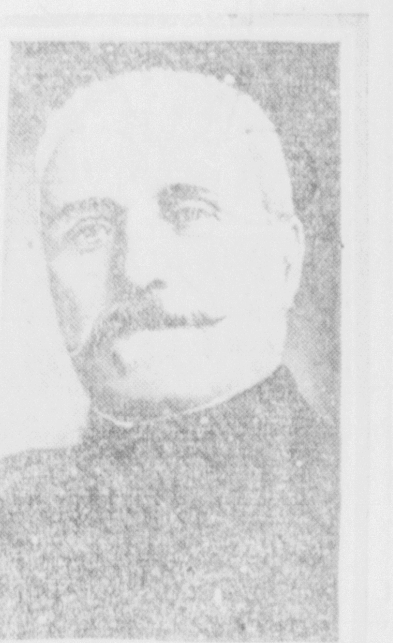

LONDON MEET PRELIMINARY

(By Associated Press)
London, November 29.—The meeting of the allied leaders in London next week will be a preliminary to the peace conference, the Daily Express says. Col. House and Premier Orlando, of Italy, will be here with the British and French statesmen.

BADEN WOULD QUIT BERLINERS

(By Associated Press)
London, November 29.—The Liberal Party in Baden has issued a proclamation demanding a complete breach with Berlin, according to an Exchange Telegraph Dispatch from Copenhagen.

GIVEN NEW HONORS

GENERAL DE CASTELNAU

General Edouard de Castelnau, who will lead the French army of occupation into Strasbourg, will, according to a dispatch from Paris quoting the Echo de Paris, "soon assume a new dignity." Paris newspapers previously reported that three new marshals of France probably would be appointed soon, and that one general would be promoted when Strasbourg was entered. Apparently one of the generals to be elevated will be General de Castelnau. He is one of the most successful heroes of the French army and is known as the "Savior of Nancy" for his brilliant defense of that region in the first months of the war. He was chief of the French General Staff under Marshal Joffre.

HUNS MUST PAY COST OF PIRACY

"The submarine pirates must be punished," the premier added, "and whoever devastated the lands of another country ought to be responsible for it."

VICTORY SING AN OCCASION OF GREAT JOY

High School Auditorium
Not Large Enough to Hold Great Throngs
Which Come to Join In Victory's Anthems.

While in unison all over our country, and across the waters thousands of people were swelling the choruses
of the national program of song in the "Victory Sing," the same triumphant volume rose from hundreds of throats
in our own city and brought this significant Thanksgiving Day to a glorious close. Not only people of the town but from all over Fayette county poured into the High School Auditorium a steady stream of men, women and children, filling every bit of available space in the hall, packing
the entrances, hundreds standing
Never has the High School Auditorium
held such a gathering and never before have our patriotic songs been sung with such inspiration as at this
"Victory Sing," the protegee of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense and carried, in our home city, to magnificent success by the local Woman's Committee.
H. C. N. D., an organization of definite accomplishment.

The Glee Clubs and a number of the leading singers of Washington
filled the stage and under the splendid direction of Miss Elizabeth Sheer Supervisor of Music in the Schools
led the choruses with fine spirit—
and everybody sang—sang because the gladness of victory was in every heart and rejoiced in expressing itself.
Mayor V. J. Dahl presided, prefacing the program with brief and appropriate remarks. Rev. Arthur P.
Cherrington gave the invocation.
The program opened with "The Star

Spangled Banner" and was divided into three groups, the songs of Thanksgiving, the songs of Home and the songs of Victory. The new popular patriotic songs, with their rhythm and "pop" effectively interspersed the older and more familiar songs, and a number of the more difficult ones
were beautifully sung as solos—the soloists were Misses Dorothy Rogers, Edith Gardner, Ada Woodward, and
Messrs. R. R. Kibler, Richard Haynes
and Willis Willis. Mrs. Hugh Kenedy played the chorus accompaniment admirably and was assisted by Miss Light with the accompaniment for the soloists.

Four minute speakers added just the right note of patriotism, rejoicing and thankfulness to the "Victory Sing" in stirring talks. They were Hon. Frank J. Parrett, Rev. J. L. McWilliams and
Hon. C. A. Reid. Mrs. Mina Rowe dorris spoke at the request of the Food Commission to present to Fayette county the necessity of continued food conservation as it had been shown at the meeting of the State
Food Commission, Columbus, last week. As a delegate Mrs. Morris brought the very latest word from the Food Administration and, a very fluent and convincing speaker, made
plain to her audience that the people of the United States were not asked
to give up anything not really necessary and that their sacrifice is not for Germany but for her innocent victims.

UNION SERVICES WELL ATTENDED

Grace M. E. Church held an unusually large audience for the Thanksgiving Union Services of Thursday morning and an audience deeply attuned to the significance of this Thanksgiving of 1918.

Rev. G. E. Groves, of the Church of Christ, held the opening service, assisted by Rev. Reji and the Pastor of Grace Church, Rev. Cherrington.

The church choir, augmented by a few singers from other choirs, sang a beautiful Thanksgiving anthem.
Rev. J. L. McWilliams, acting pastor of the First Presbyterian church,
delivered the Thanksgiving sermon,
an exceptionally able one, of decided originality and opening up a new line
of thought in connection with the spirit of the day. Mr. McWilliams selected the unusual text, "The same light in which he was betrayed he looked back and when he had given thanks he broke it," as a text freighted with meaning, a message for this lay and this people. He emphasized
the power of suggestion and the great part it plays in the world around;
in the moulding of the mental state to be accomplishing of good or otherwise. The subconscious state finds expression in many ways in modern thought. Developing his introductory thought to the "day set apart by our forefathers to render thanks," the speaker voiced the people's gratitude
in being, after the bloodiest war of
all history, at peace with the world;
pestilence, which always stalks grimly after war, checked, larders full,
prospects bright, and with the right
to enter into the spirit of the first Thanksgiving, feeling that our nation
has won a great moral victory in the war and may confidently enter into
the great problems of reconstruction,
realizing that "God's in his heaven

REDS AND BLUES ARE LINING UP

The Reds and Blues, which will start out to sell the amount of war savings stamps remaining unsold in Fayette county's quota, and devote
next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday to the work, are now lining up
and preparing for mortal combat in order that the "other team" may have the privilege of buying a turkey dinner.

The teams are composed of the
following men:

Reds: Geo. H. Hitchcock, captain;
J. D. Post, Joseph Hidy, D. S. Craig,
R. T. McClure, F. O. Cline, G. B.
Rogers, Edgar Snyder, Renick Boggs,
W. W. Hamilton, H. G. Coffman,
Earl McLean, Ed Fite and Horace
Ireland.

Blues—James Ford, Captain; M. S.
Daugherty, Herbert Chapman, C. P.
Ballard, M. E. Hitchcock, A. W. Duff,
C. N. Baer, W. A. Tharp, C. E.
Lloyd, Frank C. Parrett, C. A. Reid,
Wm. McClain, W. H. Brown and
Henry Brownell.

It is expected that rivalry between the two teams will be keen, and that the two bunches of hustlers will report some splendid sales.

CAPT. HARDWAY IS AWARDED THE CROIX D'GUERRE

Mrs. O. E. Hardway has just received word that her husband, Captain Hardway, formerly of M Company, but who for the past two or three months has been in charge of
a prison camp at Tagny-Sur-Meuse,
has been awarded the Croix-de-Guerre
or cross of honor, by the French Government.

The honor medal was awarded to Captain Hardway for valiant service
in stopping the Huns on July 15th,
along the Marne river, at which time
it is understood Captain Hardway
suffered severely by reason of a high explosive shell striking within a few feet of him while he was in charge
of his men in beating back the oncoming Germans. It is said that Captain Hardway was wounded in the hip at that time, but he has never
said anything regarding this report.
However, others from this part of Ohio declare that Captain Hardway
was wounded at the time.

The honor conferred upon Captain Hardway comes only to those who have distinguished themselves in action, and news of the award will be pleasing to Captain Hardway's
host of friends in this city and county.

A TRIO OF YOUNG CROOKS ARRESTED HAD STOLEN AUTO

Youthful Auto Thieves Picked Up in Hurry With Stolen Car.

Cincinnati Authorities Will Handle Bunch.

A trio of youthful crooks who had stolen an automobile in Cincinnati and were in the act of selling it in this city, fell into the hands of Chief of Police, D. L. Moore, Friday morning, and were soon reposing behind the walls of the city lockup awaiting the arrival of Cincinnati authorities to take charge of the bunch and return them to Cincinnati to face a charge of stealing a Buick Six automobile owned by John C. Clark, of Williams-town, Ky.

The boys, who range from 16 to 19 years, gave the names of Geo. Davis and James H. Regan, claiming Baltimore, Maryland, as their home, while "Nick Till" the third, gave his residence as 526 West 7th street, Cincinnati. They confessed to the police that they had stolen the car on Vine street, Cincinnati, about six o'clock on Thursday evening, and intended to return to Cincinnati after selling the car in this city.

The trio drove in on West Court street about 8:45 Friday morning, having spent the night somewhere between this city and Cincinnati, and as soon as they struck this city they offered to sell the car.

Mr. W. W. Wilson was near at the time and after a look at the bunch, who had made inquiry about a junk shop, decided that they had stolen the machine, and while they were in search of a buyer for the machine, he notified the police and also A. C. Henkle.

When they returned to car, which had been left standing on Court street Chief Moore, acting on the tip given by Mr. Wilson, approached the bunch and asked them if they would sell the car. He was assured that they would do so "for any amount we can get," and A. C. Henkle who had arrived, was tipped off and immediately entered into negotiations for purchase of the car for $200.

"Come on down to the bank and I will give you a check," said Mr. Henkle. "We want the cash," announced the spokesman of the bunch.

"And I want you," exclaimed Chief Moore, as he laid hands on the two nearest to him and took them in charge. The third youth started to run, and not wanting to release his two prisoners to give pursuit Chief Moore deputized a by-stander who gave chase and after a two blocks' run overhauled his man and brought him back.

The boys then confessed, according to the police. The entire story was soon uncovered, and the trio placed in the city lockup until the Cincinnati authorities could come for them. The car also was taken in charge by the police.

It is believed by the police that the pair have been operating together for some time, as photographs taken from them indicated that they had been together for at least a week.

It is believed that the pair claiming Baltimore as their home really live in Cincinnati.

YOUNG BANDIT TO GO TO THE WORKS

George McBride, 20, one of trio of car-breakers who recently planned to hold up the Standard Oil Company in this city and later shoot B. & O. detective Fred Lurance, Friday was sentenced by Probate Judge Frank M. Allen to 90 days in the Xenia workhouse and to pay a fine of $100.

He will be taken to the workhouse without delay. His companions in crime are still at large.

CRAIG BROTHERS

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Somewhere in France,

October 27, 1918.

Dear Friend:—

Having at last got settled here in France, will drop you a few lines.

We have been in this country for over a month now and after moving about from camp to camp and billet to billet, have been stationed at a camp hospital, which our company is now operating.

The country here is untouched by war's ruthless hand and, being far from the battlefield, you would not know that this nation is at war. The country is very beautiful, the climate mild, but damp. We are in the southern part of France, in the grape region, and the people depend largely upon the wine produced as a means of income. This year's grape crop has just been harvested.

The building in which the hospital is located was built in 1861 by a Russian Prince and was used by him as a summer home. He lies buried in a beautiful tomb at the foot of the hill. The structure is very imposing, five storied stone structure and is a good example of French architecture. The interior woodwork is mainly black oak. There are many mirrors, statues, and several marble stairways.

On account of the dampness of the climate, we were ordered out of our billet, into our pup tents and despite their smallness are very comfortable besides preserving the health of the men.

VICTORY SING AN OCCASION OF GREAT JOY

High School Auditorium
Not Large Enough to Hold Great Throngs
Which Come to Join In Victory's Anthems.

While in unison all over our country, and across the waters thousands
of people were swelling the choruses
of the national program of song in the "Victory Sing," the same triumphal
volume rose from hundreds of throats
in our own city and brought this significant Thanksgiving Day to a glorious close. Not only people of the town but from all over Fayette county poured into the High School Auditorium a steady stream of men, women and children, filling every bit of
available space in the hall, packing
the entrances, hundreds standing.
Never has the High School Auditorium
held such a gathering and never before have our patriotic songs been
sung with such inspiration as at this
"Victory Sing," the protegee of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense and carried, I
our home city, to magnificent success by the local Woman's Committee.
H. C. N. D., an organization of definite
accomplishment.

The Glee Clubs and a number of
the leading singers of Washington
filled the stage and under the splendid direction of Miss Elizabeth Sheer Supervisor of Music in the Schools
led the choruses with fine spirit—
and everybody sang—sang because
the gladness of victory was in every
heart and rejoiced in expressing itself.
Mayor V. J. Dahl in presiding, prefacing the program with brief and appropriate remarks. Rev. Arthur P.
Cherrington gave the invocation.
The program opened with "The Star

Spangled Banner" and was divided into three groups, the songs of Thanksgiving, the songs of Home and
the songs of Victory. The new popular patriotic songs, with their rhythm and "pep" effectively interspersed the older and more familiar songs, and a number of the more difficult ones
were beautifully sung as solos—the
soloists were Misses Dorothy Rogers,
Edith Gardner, Ada Woodward, and
Messrs. R. R. Kibler, Richard Haynes
and Willis Willis. Mrs. Hugh Kennedy played the chorus accompaniments admirably and was assisted by Miss Light with the accompaniments or the soloists.

Four minute speakers added just the right note of patriotism, rejoicing and thankfulness to the "Victory Sing" in their talks. They were Hon. Frank L. Parrett, Rev. J. L. McWilliams and
Hon. C. A. Reid. Mrs. Mina Rowe
Morris spoke at the request of the Food Commission to request to Fayette county the necessity of continued food conservation as it had been shown at the meeting of the State
Food Commission, Columbus, last week. As a delegate Mrs. Morris
brought the very latest word from the Food Administration and, a very fluent and convincing speaker, made
plain to her audience that the people
of the United States were not asked
to give up anything not really necessary and that their sacrifice is not for Germany but for her innocent victims.

UNION SERVICES WELL ATTENDED

Grace M. E. Church held an unusually large audience for the Thanksgiving Union Services of Thursday
morning and an audience deeply attuned to the significance of this Thanksgiving of 1918.

Rev. G. E. Groves, of the Church of Christ, held the opening service, assisted by Rev. Reji and the Pastor of
Grace Church, Rev. Cherrington.

The church choir, augmented by a
few singers from other choirs, sang a beautiful Thanksgiving anthem.

Rev. J. L. McWilliams, acting pastor of the First Presbyterian church,
delivered the Thanksgiving sermon,
an exceptionally able one, of decided
originality and opening up a new line
of thought in connection with the spirit of the day. Mr. McWilliams selected the unusual text, "The same light in which he was betrayed he broke bread and when he had given thanks he broke it," as a text freight-
ed with meaning, a message for this lay and this people. He emphasized
the power of suggestion and the great
part it plays in the world around;
in the moulding of the mental state to
be accomplishing of good or otherwise. The subconscious state finds expression in many ways in modern thought. Developing his introductory thought to the "day set apart by our forefathers to render thanks," the
speaker voiced the people's gratitude
in being, after the bloodiest war of
all history, at peace with the world;
pestilence, which always stalks egrinly after war, checked, ladders full,
prospects bright, and with the right
to enter into the spirit of the first Thanksgiving, feeling that our nation
has won a great moral victory in the war and may confidently enter into
the great problems of reconstruction,
realizing that "God's in his heaven

REDS AND BLUES ARE LINING UP

The Reds and Blues, which will
start out to sell the amount of war
savings stamps remaining unsold in Fayette county's quota, and devote
next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday to the work, are now lining up
and preparing for mortal combat in order that the "other team" may
have the privilege of buying a turkey dinner.

The teams are composed of the
following men:

Reds: Geo. H. Hitchcock, captain;
J. D. Post, Joseph Hidy, D. S. Craig,
R. T. McClure, F. O. Cline, G. B.
Rogers, Edgar Snyder, Renick Boggs
W. W. Hamilton, H. G. Coffman,
Earl McLean, Ed Fite and Horace
Ireland.

Blues—James Ford, Captain; M. S.
Daugherty, Herbert Chapman, C. P.
Ballard, M. E. Hitchcock, A. W. Duff
C. N. Baer, W. A. Tharp, C. E.
Lloyd, Frank C. Parrett, C. A. Reid,
Wm. McClain, W. H. Brown and
Henry Brownell.

It is expected that rivalry between
the two bunches of hustlers will report some splendid sales.

Alcohol is safe to use in your radiator and positively will prevent freezing when properly mixed and put

Hood Covers

Gordon Covers are highest quality. The motor starts easier and the saving in gasoline is worth while.

A Holley Manifold

Heats and vaporizes the gasoline. Gets from 5 to 7 more miles per gallon of gasoline. Made and guaranteed by the Holley Carburetor Company and we

Cold-Weather Oils

Get expert assistance in selecting the right oil for your particular car. Poor oil, and use of the wrong kind of good oil, leads to many motor troubles. We carry oil for all cars generally used here and have over 130 barrels of oil in stock today. Satisfaction guaranteed to you.

Tractor Oils

Best results are obtained by using special tractor oils. Guessing at oil for a tractor is decidedly risky.
Our tractor oils are fully warranted.

Automobile Tires

Many sizes are still difficult to get from the best factories which, of course, were chosen for the bulk of the government work. The end of the war probably will change the situation but no factory announcements have yet been made. Certain sizes are about sold out. Telephone us to save your size.

Used Cars

A few cars in fine going condition are ready for immediate delivery at attractive prices. Winter storage is crowding them out. Warranted as represented.

CAPT. HARDWAY IS AWARDED THE CROIX D'GUERRE

Mrs. O. E. Hardway has just received word that her husband, Captain Hardway, formerly of M Company, but who for the past two or three months has been in charge of
a prison camp at Tagny-Sur-Meuse,
has been awarded the Croix-de-Guerre
or cross of honor, by the French Government.

The honor medal was awarded to Captain Hardway for valiant service
in stopping the Huns on July 15th,
along the Marne river, at which time
it is understood Captain Hardway
suffered severely by reason of a high
explosive shell striking within a few
feet of him while he was in charge
of his men in beating back the oncoming Germans. It is said that Captain Hardway was wounded in the hip at that time, but he has never
said anything regarding this report.
However, others from this part of
Ohio declare that Captain Hardway
was wounded at the time.

The honor conferred upon Captain Hardway comes only to those who have distinguished themselves in action, and news of the award will be
pleasing to Captain Hardway's
host of friends in this city and county.

COURT AFFIRMS LEIST JUDGMENT

The Ohio Supreme Court has just handed down its decision in the case of Mrs. F. R. Leist, of Kingston, O., against the Sgloto Valley Traction Company, in which case Mrs. Leist was given a verdict of $5,000 damages for the death of her husband, who was killed when his automobile was struck by a traction car.

The judgment of the lower court was affirmed by the Supreme Court, and the case can be carried to no higher court. Mrs. Leist formerly resided in this city.

A TRIO OF YOUNG CROOKS ARRESTED HAD STOLEN AUTO

Youthful Auto Thieves Picked Up in Hurry With Stolen Car.

Cincinnati Authorities Will Handle Bunch.

A trio of youthful crooks who had stolen an automobile in Cincinnati and were in the act of selling it in this city, fell into the hands of Chief of Police, D. L. Moore, Friday morning, and were soon reposing behind the walls of the city lockup awaiting the arrival of Cincinnati authorities to take charge of the bunch and return them to Cincinnati to face a charge of stealing a Buick Six automobile owned by John C. Clark, of Williams-town, Ky.

The boys, who range from 16 to 19 years, gave the names of Geo. Davis and James H. Regan, claiming Baltimore, Maryland, as their home, while "Nick Till" the third, gave his residence as 526 West 7th street, Cincinnati. They confessed to the police that they had stolen the car on Vine street, Cincinnati, about six o'clock on Thursday evening, and intended to return to Cincinnati after selling the car in this city.

The trio drove in on West Court street about 8:45 Friday morning, having spent the night somewhere between this city and Cincinnati, and as soon as they struck this city they offered to sell the car.

Mr. W. W. Wilson was near at the time and after a look at the bunch, who had made inquiry about a junk shop, decided that they had stolen the machine, and while they were in search of a buyer for the machine, he notified the police and also A. C. Henkle.

When they returned to car, which had been left standing on Court street Chief Moore, acting on the tip given by Mr. Wilson, approached the bunch and asked them if they would sell the car. He was assured that they would do so "for any amount we can get," and A. C. Henkle who had arrived, was tipped off and immediately entered into negotiations for purchase of the car for $200.

"Come on down to the bank and I will give you a check," said Mr. Henkle. "We want the cash," announced the spokesman of the bunch.

"And I want you," exclaimed Chief Moore, as he laid hands on the two nearest to him and took them in charge. The third youth started to run, and not wanting to release his two prisoners to give pursuit Chief Moore deputized a by-stander who gave chase and after a two blocks' run overhauled his man and brought him back.

The boys then confessed, according to the police. The entire story was soon uncovered, and the trio placed in the city lockup until the Cincinnati authorities could come for them. The car also was taken in charge by the police.

It is believed by the police that the pair have been operating together for some time, as photographs taken from them indicated that they had been together for at least a week.

It is believed that the pair claiming Baltimore as their home really live in Cincinnati.

YOUNG BANDIT TO GO TO THE WORKS

George McBride, 20, one of trio of car-breakers who recently planned to hold up the Standard Oil Company in this city and later shoot B. & O. detective Fred Lieurance, Friday was sentenced by Probate Judge Frank M. Allen to 90 days in the Xenia workhouse and to pay a fine of $100.

He will be taken to the workhouse without delay. His companions in crime are still at large.

Sea Commerce

Developments since the close of the war point unerringly to the determination of the United States to assume a much more important position in the commerce of the world than that occupied before the war.

We have been building and buying and otherwise acquiring ships at a marvelous rate during the last year and, at the present time, our ship tonnage, our commerce carrying capacity places us in the front rank among the great maritime nations. German vessels have been driven from the sea and the British ship tonnage has been greatly reduced by war losses. Then, too, the added burden on British ships in transporting colonial troops to their homes, the building up of Britain's depleted supplies is certain to occupy British commerce carrying vessels for some time to come, creating not only the opportunity, but also the necessity for the United States to push on to the sea with her ships and assist in carrying the commerce of the world.

Germany's Attitude

The glorious ideals and plans of the allied and associated nations, regarding the principles to be incorporated into the peace treaty insuring the safety of civilization are inspiring and our enthusiasm and optimism as to the future of humanity and the international relations increases as the time for the great gathering at Versailles approaches nearer.

Then something occurs in Germany or some one of the German leaders, and it matters but little whether he belongs to the old or to the new regime, says or does something which sends all of our hopes crashing in ruins as we are forced to realize that the Huns have entirely missed the big lesson of the war.

Developments during the war and since the war force us, against our desires, to realize that the Huns are a different type from the people of the rest of the world. They may, in time, get a proper understanding of individual and national life, but they haven't got it yet. They have not only not changed their understanding, but they evidence no desire to change it nor even, if we are to judge by their present attitude and activities, realize that they could be bettered by any change.

The German people are yet, notwithstanding the awful sorrows and sufferings endured by them during the war, notwithstanding the colossal loss which the war has entailed upon them, a war-like people who understand only and desire only to understand and perfect the old barbarous idea of clan and class. The higher and nobler ideals of life, individual and national, have no attractions for them. They are by nature, by choice and by training the band of barbarous marauders and robbers.

They realize only that they have failed in the last raid and the future only holds for them the opportunity to build up for another raid on civilization.

The German people left to themselves would welcome the return of the tribal chief. They want to be ruled and driven so that they may be strong enough to prey upon the other nations.

Perhaps, after years, the German people will appreciate our help and try to find the way to a better life, but they, at present, evidence no desire to change, no gratitude for our proffer of assistance. They are willing to accept material aid but beyond that their minds do not grasp the situation.

Government Control

The war is over. Of course we all understand that the final treaty of peace has not yet been signed, but that, in view of the acceptance of the armistice terms and the execution of that agreement, has become a matter of form almost wholly.

Realizing those facts the American people are anxious for a decentralization of the power which has been lodged in the executive for war purposes.

Whether the majority of the American people are in favor of government ownership or even government control of public utilities is questionable, but whether they are or not it is for them to decide, now that peace has come once more.

The failure by the government to surrender some of the autocratic power, thus soon after the close of hostilities, might be very easily explained or excused, but the justice of the acquisition of yet other public utilities by the government since the close of the war is difficult for the people to understand. Autocratic powers should be on the decrease, not on the increase.

POEM FOR TODAY

IT IS OVER OVER THERE

It is over over there.
It is over everywhere.
Shells were flying.
Men were dying.
Children crying;
But it's over over there.

CHORUS

It is over over there.
It is over everywhere.
It is over with the Hun
And the victory is won.
It is over over there.
It is over everywhere.

It is over over there.
It is over everywhere.
Bells are ringing,
Men are singing,
Joy is winning.
It is over over there.

It is over over there.
It is over everywhere.
Do not doubt it;
Tell about it;
Let us shout it.
It is over over there.

—Edward C. Downing.

EFFORT TO DESTROY GERMAN TOYS

The patriotic refusal of the American Red Cross to accept profit from the sale of German toys, offered to it by Sears, Roebuck and Co., has received the following telegram of appreciation from Richard M. Hard, chairman of the American Defense Society's Boycott Committee: "Your patriotic refusal to accept profits from German toys will be heartily indorsed by all loyal Americans."

At the same time telegram was sent to Sears, Roebuck & Co., reading:

"The American Defense Society respectfully requests you to turn over to it the German goods consigned to you on the Nieuw Amsterdam subject to claim of Government for duty. On acceptance of this offer from you the American Defense Society will request the Government to waive the duty, on these German goods for bonds duly given for their destruction."

It was ascertained by the society that four other firms were consignees of the playthings that came in on the steamship. A telegram asking them to renounce their shipments was sent.

Every day the feeling in this country against the importation of German made goods grows stronger and there is a general demand that these toys be destroyed and no more German made goods be imported.

The Hoboken branch of the Defense organization is talking of going to the New Jersey Legislature and urging that a law be enacted compelling merchants in that state to post notices that they handle German made goods.

MRS. TRIBBETTS' FRIENDS SAID TO TAKE NERV-WORTH

Followed Their Advice With
"Wonderful Results," She Declares

Constant readers of these "thankful Nerv-Worth endorsements have not failed to note how often they use that eloquent word "wonderful." Mrs. Tribbetts used it in her statement to Ashland's Nerv-Worth druggist and the term was fully justified: Steele & Lawrence—I have been troubled with nervousness for the past two years. I could not rest at night and I was in a generally run-down condition. I was advised by a number of my friends to take Nerv-Worth. After taking one bottle I can certainly see wonderful results and feel sure that it will cure me. I am purchasing the second bottle today. I can truthfully recommend Nerv-Worth to anyone.

CONVALESCENCE

"Getting better" is the most serious time for those who have had gripe, influenza or other severe sickness. Something more than ordinary good food is required to build you up. A tonic is needed, and for this purpose doctors usually prescribe some form of Iron, Nux Vomica, Gentian, and Zinc Phosphide.

The Iron especially is very essential but in most preparations it causes constipation. In Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Tablets this is overcome however, by the addition of Aloin to the other tonic remedies.

As these tablets contain all of these essential tonics in any easily assimilated form, they make a pleasant safe and sure health restorer and of inestimable value at this time.

News of Interest to Women

Never was a golden wedding more joyously celebrated, with no effort spared to make it a beautiful and not to be forgotten milestone in the lives of a family closely bound together, than that of Mr. and Mrs. John Collopy on Thanksgiving day. To the large number of relatives and the hundreds of friends who shared in the interest of the anniversary and the generous hospitality extended by the family, the occasion will list its self as a golden memory, as it does to the bride and bridegroom of fifty years ago and their twelve children and numerous grand children entertaining with them.

As far as possible although with an elaborateness that would have been difficult half a century ago, the golden wedding anniversary was the facsimile of the original wedding day, when Katherine Fitzgerald, of Cedar Swamp, Long Island, became the bride of John Collopy, of Circleville. The wedding vows were renewed with all the impressiveness of the nuptial mass at nine o'clock Thursday morning, when St. Colman's church was filled with friends. In front of altars decorated with a profusion of chrysanthemums and radiant with electric candles, Mr. and Mrs. Collopy took their places, attended by Miss Mable Collopy and Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, of Hempfle, Mo., brother of Mrs. Collopy.

Mrs. Collopy was wearing a handsome gown of grey crepe de chine, the same color of her first wedding dress, hat to match and a gold necklace that had been specially brought over from the old country. Both bride and bridegroom carried gold rosaries, the gift of a grand-daughter, Josephine Long.

The daughter who filled the role of bridesmaid was exceedingly pretty in white crepe de chine over yellow, with bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and cream roses.

Rev. Father Fogarty conducted the nuptial mass, for which a mixed choir furnished fine music.

The wedding service after so many years of happy married life was most affecting. The wedding party was driven from the church to the K. of P. Castle, where a reception was held until three o'clock in the afternoon and over a hundred relatives and intimate friends entertained at an elaborate noon dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Collopy received in one of the castle's ball rooms aglow with bloom, and until the close of the reception hour friends came and went, extending best wishes to the genial couple, who responded most happily.

In the banquet hall caterer Eastman served a five course dinner that proved a combination of wedding feast and Thanksgiving turkey dinner and was a gastronomic triumph. The big hall presented scene of dazzling brilliancy and beauty. Long tables were arranged in the form of a cross, with large and small baskets of white and gold chrysanthemums in exquisite arrangement, the handles tied with tulle and splendid blooms merging from tall crystal vases, forming effective decoration; candelabra holding twinkling yellow candles and over head festoons of yellow and green paper. The place cards were chrysanthemums and the favor baskets of yellow filled with bonbons.

At the head of the cross was the bridal table, with a splendid bridal cake before the places of the bride and bridegroom. The pleasure of the occasion reached flood-tide during the dinner hour and continued throughout the reception following.

A dance from eight to twelve in the evening brought to a gay close the day's festivities. With all the buoyancy of their bridal days Mr. and Mrs. Collopy led the grand march down the big ball room, at eight o'clock, opening the ball, and until midnight the dance went merrily on.

Splendid music, full of rhythm was furnished by Miss Mary Ellen Briggs' four piece orchestra and during the day there was Victrola music.

Many were the interesting reminiscences of the day and an announcement eliciting special interest was that of the birth of a grandson to Mr. and Mrs. Collopy, on the morning of their fiftieth anniversary—the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Nelson (nee Bertha Collopy) of Day, children and ten grand children to the exception of Mrs. Nelson, were present and assisted in the successful hospitalities of the day.

It is indeed remarkable for twelve children and ten, grand children to participate in a golden wedding anniversary.

The 10 grandchildren attending were Joseph, Alice and Harriet Morris, Circleville; Josephine Long, Columbus; James, Gerald, Mary and Paul Reay, Mt. Sterling; Catherine and Wert Collopy of near this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Collopy were the recipients of a large number of handsome wedding gifts, apropos to the day, flowers and letters of congratulations.

The children include Mr. John Collopy, of Turon, Kansas; C. G. Collopy, Saxton, Mo.; James J. Collopy, Evanston, Wyoming; Mrs. J. J. Flynn, Dayton; Mrs. John Reay, Mt. Sterling; Mrs. J. J. Long, Columbus; Mrs. Chas. Morris, Circleville; Mr. Thos. Collopy, Mr. Wardus Collopy, Mr. Frank Collopy and Miss Mabel Collopy. Besides the children and their families the guests from out of town were; Mrs. Collopy's brother Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Hempfle, Mo. Mr. Al Flynn, Messrs. John Carlsoa, Kenneth Morberg, William Behling, Miss Augusta Hurley of Dayton; Miss Mary Stuck, Union City Ind.; Miss Kate Alkire, Mt. Sterling; Mr. Hiram McGhee, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Williamsport, Mrs. Truscamp and son Harry, Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morris, west of town, entertained at a Thanksgiving dinner; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Baughn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis, daughter Donna Belle, Mrs. Soel Morris and Misses Helen Morris and Daryl Wilt.

Of the turkey dinners on Thanksgiving day none was more enjoyable than the one at the home of Messrs. H. G. Nixon and Willis Cartwright, on Lakeview Avenue, participated in by relatives and friends.

Mr. T. H. Craig and daughter, Miss Mary entertained with a turkey dinner on Thanksgiving day. Their guests were confined to members of the family: Mr. and Mrs. Eli Craig, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Craig and son David, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig and sons Thomas and Eli, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Craig and son Andrew. The decorations were suggestive of the Thanksgiving season.

An event of unusual occurrence was celebrated at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowers on Thanksgiving day when 28 relatives and friends gathered to remind them of their third wedding anniversary and also to celebrate the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowers, parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Bowers.

Still another honor guest who came in for his share of the congratulations was Mr. George Lane who celebrated his birthday Thursday.

Two long tables extending almost the entire length of the dining room were laden with all the delicacies of an elegant Thanksgiving dinner. Victrola music throughout the day added greatly to the pleasure.

The only shadow of regret to mar the happy occasion was the absence Mrs. Samuel Bowers, to whom all pre of two of the honor guests, Mr. and sent sent congratulations and who were included in the best wishes for other happy anniversaries that were showered upon these three couples.

The guests included: Mrs. Margaret Hurt, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hurt and children Myrtle, Annalee and Robert, Mrs. Leontine Hurt and children Marie, Thelma, Orville and Katharine, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Lane and children Clark and Leslie of Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lane and children Eva, Robert and Kenneth from Benson, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. George Lane and daughter Margaret from Rock Mills, Miss Goldie Lane and Mr. Amos Bowers.

The Annual Thanksgiving dance was given this year by the Women of St. Andrews Episcopal Guild at Eagle's Hall, Thursday night.

More than one hundred couples from this city and nearby cities and towns were in attendance and enjoyed a splendid time.

The arrangements were exceedingly simple but that was rather an added feature of the most enjoyable occasion.

Excellent dance music was furnished by the Whelpley orchestra of this city.

Light refreshments consisting of sandwiches coffee and ice cream were served by the ladies of the Committee of St. Andrew's Guild. Wilmington, Chillicothe and Greenfield young society folks were among the out town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Holloway delightfully entertained yesterday Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stone, Mrs. Anna James, Miss Mary McFadden and Miss Southerland, of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sands and daughter, Marion of Louisville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, of Bloomingburg entertained with a family dinner Thursday.

The Thanksgiving color scheme of yellow and green was artistically carried out and covers laid for eleven.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fite entertained with an attractive dinner Thursday. Mrs. Mary Fite, daughter, Miss Miriam, Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Fite, son Billy, Cleveland and Mr. Dick Andrews, Cincinnati.

In honor of the seventy-second birthday of their mother, Mrs. Lucy E. Sylvester, Mrs. A. L. Logan, Mrs. James Melson and Mr. James Sylvester entertained with an elegant Thanksgiving dinner at the Melson home on West Elm street, Thursday. It was a day fraught with much pleasure and happiness, the entire family circle present—three children, nine grand children and six great grand children together with other relatives and friends, numbering twenty-five guests in all.

Yellow and mahogany chrysanthemums lent attractiveness to the rooms.

Guests from out of town were, Mr. and Mrs. James Sylvester, Mrs. Jay Anderson, Bainbridge; Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Clyburn, Greenfield; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cubbage, son Russell, Springfield; Lawrence Kelley and William Melson, Dayton.

The annual Thanksgiving dinner of the Hopkins family was given by Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hopkins Thursday.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Eva J. Penn, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Penn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamilton, son Frank Mr. and Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins and Mrs. Ellen Jones, Hon. and Mrs. J. M. Willis, Miss Ida Ware, and Mrs. Laura Jones of Bloomingburg.

Mrs. J. A. Hartley entertained with an elaborate Thanksgiving dinner at her home on West Court street Thursday.

The guests numbered thirty-five; those from out of town were Mr. R. G. Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peelle and Miss Willia P. Hartley of Dayton; Miss Mabel Brennan of Xenia, Mrs. Homer Snow and son John Raymond and baby daughter Helen Romanic of Lees Creek and Mr. J. L. Kelley of Milledgeville.

Victrola music added to the day's pleasure.

When the Washington High School football team defeated the Springfield team on the latter's field last Saturday, Supt. Wm. McClain promised the boys a turkey dinner and that dinner was given Thanksgiving evening at the McClain home on North North street with Superintendent and Mrs. McClain royal entertainers.

Huge, shaggy, pink chrysanthemums were used in attractive decoration on the table.

Throughout, the dinner hour was one of marked pleasure and jollity.

Seated with the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Coffman, Miss Amy V. Conn, and members of the team, Captain Robert Reardon, Thomas Rodgers, Edward DeWees, Lawrence Laughlin, Wendell Hays, Robert Cockerill, Willis Willis, David Craig, Richard Haynes, Wm. BACK TO THE BUCKEYE FARM

Columbus, Ohio, November 29th.—Back to the farm!

Demobilized soldiers with farming experience are to be asked to help get unused farm land in Ohio under cultivation next Spring.

Plans for getting in touch with men of this kind as rapidly as they are discharged at Camp Sherman were announced by Thomas D. Phillips, farm help specialist of the U. S. Employment Service today. At the same time, he said, arrangements had been made whereby unused farm lands in every county of the state would be listed for use in handling this matter.

The aim is to get men who had been lured from the farm before the war. Most of the farm boys inducted into service will automatically return to the farms, Phillips believes. He thinks that the outlook in the farming game is such as to induce men to follow it rather than the more crowded industrial lines.

IN MEMORIAM

Virgil Melvin Crosby, son of Charles and Mary Crosby, was born at Good Hope, Ohio, October 28 1884 died at Vicksburg, Mississippi, November 13, 1918, aged 34 years, 15 days.

October 31, 1903, Virgil was united in marriage to Miss Nina McCoy of Fairview. Two children were born to them, the first born, Charles McCoy, passing away several years ago. Virgil's wife, the second child surviving with her mother to bear this sad bereavement.

Besides the wife and child, Virgil leaves behind his mother, Mrs. Mary Crosby and one sister, Mrs. Paul Starr. Also numerous relatives who feel deeply the breaking of the silver cord that bound him close to their hearts.

Virgil spent the early days of his youth and manhood in Good Hope, his father being one of the pioneer business men of this village, a man of good and generous deeds who had much to do with the molding of Good Hope's environments.

Virgil was also a man of true worth and likeable qualities which truly endeared him to those who knew him. He had a large circle of friends, both business and personal who knew and loved and respected his manly, wholesome qualities.

For the past ten or fifteen years he was engaged in the lumber business in Mississippi, having his home at Vicksburg. After a short illness of a few days, he succumbed to the ravages of pneumonia. His death came as a shock to his friends in this community and loving hearts extend their deep and sincere sympathy to the wife and child and to the mother and sister.

"Only a bit of dust
So small that a rose might hide it;
And I trust in God—or I try to trust
As I kneel in the dark beside it.

"I kneel in the dark and say—
"I only dream that I weep;
It could not be he would go away—
He has only fallen asleep.

Fallen asleep as oft
He climbed to my arms to rest;
His white arms twining my neck as soft
As the down on a doves sweet breast
Tenderly—unawares
Sleep camp in the waning light
And kissed him there on the twilight stairs
That lead to the morning light.

And that he will wake I know
And smile at a grief like this;
It could not be he would leave us so
With never a good night kiss.

"So, I kneel in the dark and say—
"I only dream that I weep;
It could not be he would go away—
He has only fallen asleep."

WILMINGTON GETS REAL GOOSE EGG

In the final football game of the season, played on the local field, Thursday afternoon, Washington High met and defeated an old rival—Wilmington High, in such a convincing manner that there could be no doubt as to the superiority of the teams, Washington winning 40 to 0.

The game, fast from the start, with the local boys taking the lead and keeping it until the very last, was witnessed by a crowd of some 300, who went wild when Washington piled up the points thick and fast, making 13 points in the first quarter of play and preventing the visitors from making goal by a narrow margin as the first half came to an end.

In the last-half Washington held the visitors down without a single point and added 27 to their previous 13. A feature of the third quarter was a 65 yard dash made by Shepherd, of Wilmington.

The line-up of the locals was: Rear-don c.; Dearn l. e.; Cockerill r. e.; Hays l. t.; Stewart r. t.; DeWees l. e.; Rogers r. e.; Craig q. b.; Haynes f. b.; Willis l. h.; Edwards r. h.

The work of the team, although but a few games were played on account of the influenza epidemic, was brilliant and only suspension of school during the bulk of the football season prevented a number of additional scalps being tied to the belts of the husky W. H. S.

SLACKER CANNOT BUY IN HOME TOWN

The severe measures taken in Kansas to deal with fellows who failed to support war work movements and buy bonds and stamps, when amply able to do so, are much worse used than in this part of Ohio when a man failed to do his duty promptly and a visit from the "wrecking crew" was necessary.

How business men in the towns of Turon and Preston, Kansas deal with the above sort of man is told by The Hutchinson News, which gives a slacker's name and says:

"Here are some of the things he cannot do and cannot purchase in Turon: he can buy no bread, no coal no hardware, oil or gasoline, groceries, meat, jewelry, lumber, clothing, millinery and drugs. He can't sell any grain or produce, or cream. He cannot eat at any hotel or restaurant. He cannot call the doctor or go to the dentist, neither can he deposit nor borrow money in the bank. He can't get his shoes mended here, nor hire the liveryman and he can't get shaved at the barber shop. He can get no blacksmithing done and he cannot have long distance calls over the telephone. There isn't a picture show in town that he can attend until he comes across as he should.

"There's only one man whom we exempted and that was the undertaker. He wasn't asked to sign the petition because if misfortune came and Mr. Tegarden died then we didn't want anything to stand in the way of getting him buried. We have just learned that Preston has followed our example and has done the same thing. He lives between Turon and Preston although near Turon."

Austria's recent appeal didn't bring peace, but it brought her a lot of good tips on how to get peace.—Arkansas Gazette.

RED, GOLD AND BLUE

Word has finally come from Paris that after much debate she has selected red, gold and blue for her victory colors. The selection is interesting, especially when one considers the symbolical meaning of the colors. Red, of course, has always been the color of war and bloodshed; blue one associates with truth, while throughout the ages gold has been typical of light and the spiritual qualities.

Many thought that no brilliant colors would be selected as typical of the allied victory, for the end of the war meant more a blotting out of ugliness and horror than a joyous conquest.

"Let us give free course to our joy and hold back our tears"—appears on placards all over Paris. Sound philosophy that. The soul that appreciates and knows real happiness well, knows real sorrow too. The soul that understands sorrow is best capable of experiencing the highest happiness. So after all, even though victory was bought at a terrible cost brilliant colors are the most expressive of the new era that peace will usher in.

America has selected navy blue and cherry. This new cerise is touched with flame, and has the silver threads of the "Fantasi" woven through it.

It is only natural to come to the conclusion that the Victory colors will predominate in the new gowns. The war is over and women who have been in uniform are going back to their pretty clothes. Men who have seen nothing but khaki for a longer or shorter time will not want to be greeted by wives and sweethearts clad in the dull colors of service gowns and women themselves are weary of somber shades and eager to revel in bright hues.

FATHER HURT GOES TO FRANCE

Miss Isabel Smith, who gave up a profitable business at Atlantic City, N. J., to join the Salvation Army for work in France, to take up the fight that her father had to quit because of wounds he received in the battles on the western front. Her father, a Scotchman, was one of the first to go across from England with the Red Cross Ambulance forces, later joining the combatants and taking part in many battles. He was wounded and unable to resume fighting. He wrote to his daughter: "You are the only 'son' I have. Will you take up the fight that I must quit?" Miss Smith will sail for France within a few days to aid in the work of getting the American fighters ready for the voyage home.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

SOUTHWESTERN HITS CITY AND COUNTY

A heavy wind, which began Thursday morning and increased in violence until early into the night, caused considerable damage in the county, particularly to fodder, roofs, telephone poles and fences.

The wind was from the southwest and was so strong at times that it caused some alarm.

A wooden silo at the Taylor Dairy barn east of town, was blown down, part of it falling in the highway and carrying a half-dozen telephone poles and several trunk wires with it.

M. E. CENTENARY WORKERS INSPIRE CHURCH MEMBERS

A Gigantic Church Program is Enthusiastically Endorsed by Large Local Gathering

Introducing the subject of the Centenary Movement, Dr. W. E. Lewis, leader of the team which visited Washington C. H., and which met the Methodists of the upper portion of the Chillicothe District, in Grace church on Wednesday last, told of the vision of S. Earl Taylor, secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, M. E. church, who seeing the world's needs, proposed a program, adequate to the needs of the world in its reconstruction period. He reviewed briefly the progress of the movement up to the present time, then introduced Rev. G. E. VanWoert, who presented the survey of the Board of Home Missions.

Dr. Van Woert stated that Protestantism had a legitimate field of 16,000,000 people, for whose salvation they were responsible, reviewing their numbers and nationality. Among the many striking facts he gave were his arguments as to why the people of the rural districts should be interested in the city problem, particularly as to the city influence on politics and government; the awful ignorance of three million mountain whites, whose education must largely come through the church; 40,000 Indians without religious privileges; and, though needamong colored people of the south will require millions of dollars, there was much encouragement in that work because of the advance in education among them.

Following Dr. Van Woert, Rev. E. R. Stoddard outlined the plans and progress of the stewardship campaign. This division of the centenary movement has as its slogan "A Million Tithers in Methodism," with a quota of 20 per cent of the membership of each district as the goal. Already a number of conferences have put on the campaign and enrolled many more than their quota. Central New York Conference having the honor of being the first to go "over the top." The plans include a four-week educational program, put on in every church with every member sufficiently supplied with literature. Numerous examples of the wonderful successes of tithing churches were given, as well as of its advantages to the individual. Dr. Stoddard outlined the plans he is using in his own church, St. Paul's, Delaware, O., and showed the increase in his tithing members.

In a most entertaining and convincing manner he told his hearers that not only the merchant and the salaried men can tithe, but farmers, women, and in fact, all can, when they fully realize it is God's command.

In the afternoon session Dr. J. C. Jackson, District Superintendent, outlined the general objectives of the campaign, Intercession, Stewardship, Education, Evangelism and Life Service. These to precede the ten-day financial drive.

Dr. Lewis, explained the "Minute Men" organization. One of these men is to be selected for each 100 members in the local church, and are to be supplied with the choicest thoughts available. Five minutes on each Sabbath is to be given one of these men, thus bringing the cream of the Centenary message to all the congregations in Methodism. Each week fully 100,000 laymen will be on this job.

Other subjects covered were: "The Stewardship of Life," Dr. G. E. VanWoert; "Education," Dr. E. R. Stoddard; "Local Church Organization," C. R. Lowe; "Intercession," Dr. W. E. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis also told of the great Centenary Celebration, to be held at the state fair grounds, Columbus, June 20th, to July 7th next. This is to be the greatest religious and missionary exhibit ever held in this country. Natives from every continent; Missionaries from every field; exhibits showing the native life and customs, together with pageantry and illustrated lectures. One hundred delegates from all over the world are expected.

In the evening Dr. L. E. Leizell gave his illustrated lecture "Making Democracy Safe for the World."

The members of the district present voted unanimously to accept their apportionment of the $80,000,000 which is to be raised in the next five years.

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Washington C. H. people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Mrs. Etta Ellaman, 307 S. North St., Washington C. H., says: "I suffered a good deal with kidney trouble, and was so bad off, I couldn't get up or down without awful pains. I had attacks of lumbago that would lay me up for several days at a time. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. I couldn't rest nights and it was all I could do during the day to drag about. I had heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills. I gave them a trial. The first box brought fine results." (Statement given July 31, 1913.)

NATURAL GAS IN GOV'T'S CONTROL

Director Wyer's First Statement of the Measure Which Will Be Enforced.

CONSUMERS WASTE A SIXTH

Public Should Be Taught to Save Natural Gas—Coal Gas Costs Three Times as Much—Adequate Price Would Lessen Waste.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The recently appointed director of the Bureau of Gas Conservation, Mr. Samuel S. Wyer, in an address to the representatives of municipalities and the gas managers of the mid-continent field, told them that they were about to be put under licenses; that any one who did not stop the wasting of gas would lose his license to handle it.

The parts of his statement of the attitude of the government of interest to the consumer follow:

Unless arrangements are made whereby needless waste is stopped, the time is not far distant until at least the smaller distributing plants will be left with nothing but an empty or gasless distributing plant.

As a practical proposition that goes to the very root of the whole conservation question, I made the statement this morning and this afternoon and will repeat it now that you can never have conservation of natural gas until you have an adequate price. Whether or not this is desirable, it is simply a cold-blooded engineering and economic fact, and no amount of juggling will ever change it.

Twice as Hot at a Third the Cost.

We believe, as a matter of public education, that it is our duty to teach the public what natural gas is worth, and that it is our duty to teach the public as to what they will have to pay for substitutes for it when it is gone. And when we speak about natural gas being gone, we are not talking about anything that is vague or visionary, or something far remote. We have a very practical case in Richmond, Ind., where they are now paying 35 cents for natural gas. They will have to go on manufacturing gas about October. For that they will pay $1.35 for half of the heating value of their 35-cent natural gas. In other words, it is equivalent in that place, so far as the public is concerned, to jumping the price to the public from 17½ cents to $1.35. It is a fact that the public must recognize, that what they are wasting is a priceless resource, a resource that has never been duplicated, and I don't believe it ever will be, by any made product.

We expect through publicity to show the public how the ordinary domestic consumer can eliminate a large waste on his own premises. For instance, we have made a series of tests that indicate so far as we have gone, that, as a general proposition, one-sixth of all the natural gas that passes through domestic consumers' meters is never burned, but is simply wasted through leaky fixtures, leaking cocks, leaking nipples, leaking collars, elbow pipes and pin holes.

The Ohio Consumer.

The only way you can make the producer eliminate the waste is to make the gas he is wasting worth saving. In the case of the oil well waste of gas, you have got to make worth more than the oil. That, of course, will have the inevitable effect, of increasing the cost all along the line. For that reason I made the statement right at the very beginning that while we as a bureau will try to keep out of the rate making phase, I am personally convinced you will have to adjust your rate situation in order to live and make conservation possible. The two go together.

SAMUEL S. WYER, Chief of Bureau of Gas Conservation.

TOMBSTONE FOR A GAS WELL Resuscitated in Pace.

The expert of the public utilities commission who surveyed the natural gas field puts the life of a gas well at three years, eleven months and twelve days. This is a fitting inscription for the tomb of a dead well. The gas fields which have been discovered are nearing exhaustion. That of Findlay is long dead; that of Newark would not be worth attention were it not connected with the old mains; the yields from the Ashland, Richland and Medina fields are falling rapidly and every Logan Natural Gas Company is drawing largely from West Virginia. The shallow pools in Cuyahoga and Lorain counties have failed altogether.

To Avoid Waste of Gas.

Washington, Nov. 16.—School children in the natural gas producing territory of Ohio and Kentucky are to be given instruction under the auspices of the Federal Fuel Administration in avoiding waste of natural gas. The instruction in these two states commenced this month, and will be extended to all schools in natural gas regions.

The dollar worth 100 cents when public service corporations collected it a year ago, is worth 51 cents now, as shown by government figures of the comparative cost of coal, metals and labor. Rates for public service are fixed for five to twenty-five years.
